ICAN announces Women's Leadership Conference keynote speaker, Suze Orman

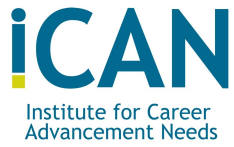

Suze Orman has been called "a force in the world of personal finance" and a "one-woman financial advice powerhouse" by USA Today. A two-time Emmy Award-winning television host, New York Times mega bestselling author, magazine and online columnist, writer/producer, and one of the top motivational speakers in the world today, Orman is undeniably America's most recognized expert on personal finance, and she will be fielding financial questions at the Women's Leadership Conference in Omaha.

Registration for the conference opened on February 9. The one-day event on April 2, 2009 offers women the tools and education they need to maintain and evolve into leadership roles and executive positions. Orman will answer questions presented to her by the 1500 conference attendees.

Orman hosts the award-winning, Suze Orman Show, which airs every Saturday night on CNBC and has written seven consecutive New York Times bestsellers. She was the recipient of the National Equality Award from the Human Rights Campaign in 2008.

Additional conference speakers include Dr. Christiane Northrup, an expert on personal health and wellness and Alison Levine, who led the first all women team up Mount Everest after overcoming a childhood heart condition.
